

2020 LGBT+ College Conference
All Identities—Expanding Your Influence
April 2-4, 2020
mtsu.edu/LGBTplusCC

Call for Presentations

The 2020 LGBT+ College Conference will host presentations of research related to LGBT+ issues, especially research focusing on issues affecting LGBT+ college and university students. The theme for this year's conference is All Identities—Expanding Your Influence. Participants may present completed research projects, research proposals and research in progress, recruit research participants, or present areas of critical research need. Research and public service projects with a university-community partnership focus are also encouraged.

Specific topics might include (but are in no way limited to):

- Intersections of LGBT+ identity and other identities
- Gender equality in the college/university community
- Effective methods of fostering allegiance within and between communities
- Communication methods in college/university communities
- Gender identity and sexual orientation equality in colleges/universities
- Demographic distributions of LGBT+ groups in colleges/universities
- The effect of LGBT+ student groups on the university community

Poster presentations will take place on Thursday, April 2, 2020

Poster presenters will be expected to provide their own stand-alone poster board for their presentation. The poster format facilitates discussion between presenters and attendees and is encouraged to create dialog.

Oral presentations will be delivered on Thursday, April 2, 2020

Oral presentations will be limited to 10 minutes, including time for questions. PowerPoint will be available for oral presentations.

All Submissions need to arrive by Wednesday, March 18, 2020, and are accepted via the following link:
