

2025 LGBT Plus College Conference
All Identities—Driving Change
April 3-5, 2025
mtsu.edu/LGBTplusCC

2025 LGBT Plus College Conference Attendee Information

Thank you for registering for the 2025 LGBT Plus College Conference! Enclosed, you will find information to help you prepare. (All posted times are for the US Central Time Zone.)

TO FIND A SESSION

The conference home page can be reached at mtsu.edu/LGBTplusCC. Navigate to the schedule page from there.

TO ATTEND LIVE

All sessions are in the Student Union Building on the Middle Tennessee State University campus.

Helpful Tips

- Parking information (and information about passes) is on the Details page on the conference website.
- The conference Details page contains additional information to help you plan your conference experience.
- If you have accessibility needs, let us know if we are not meeting them so that we can do better.
- When food is served, there should be something for everyone. If you reported dietary restrictions, feel free to ask if something meets your needs, and let us know if we need to try to provide something else.
- The conference is being shared via Zoom. We cannot guarantee that you won't be photographed or appear in the recording.

TO ATTEND VIA ZOOM

All Zoom links are on the Schedule page. Each day will run as a continuous Zoom session. You may join or leave that session at any time.

Zoom Ground Rules

- Stay muted during the event.
- Reserve the chat for questions and only questions.
- If the moderator chooses your question, they will read it.
- The Zoom sessions are recorded and posted on the conference's YouTube page. You may be part of the recording.

POST CONFERENCE

After the conference, please visit the feedback form on the conference page and provide your feedback.

If you have questions, please email william.langston@mtsu.edu. Thank you again for joining us; we look forward to seeing you at the conference!